...THESE ARE THE YEARS

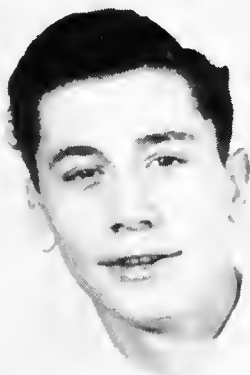

TO REMEMBER

The doors of learning and the halls of laughter are now closing for the Seniors of 1954. But we will never forget this school — the heart of all our adventures — from the shy Freshman year to the glorious day of graduation.

Yes, these, are the years to remember.

To Their Memory . . .

James Forester

Edward Greene

William Rosbrugh

Judy Auer

DEDICATION

The automobile accidents that claimed the lives of Jim Forester and Bill Rosbrugh on December 4, Ed Greene on December 22, and the sudden passing of Judy Auer in her home on October 31 left the student body shocked and grieved.

Although they are now gone from our presence, their memory will always remain in our hearts.

Table of Contents

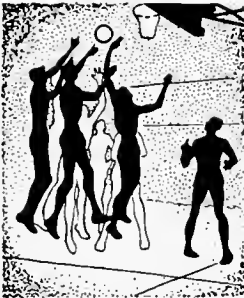

FACULTY AND CLASSES

These were the years of finding out that getting an education is hard work . . . and that teachers are friendly, generous, and capable as well as firm, exacting, and demanding.

SOCIAL AND CLUBS

The years of joining clubs to serve the school . . . of singing, playing instruments, staging plays . . . going to dances and parties. . . falling in love and out again . . . crying a little, laughing a lot . . . the happiest years of our life.

SPORTS

The years of learning the thrill of victory, accepting the bitterness of defeat . . . of learning the need for sacrifice, discipline, hard work . . . learning to make decisions under fire . . . enjoying the thrill of being a partner in a well-rounded sports program.

UNDERCLASSMEN

The years of meeting people and making new friends . . . going to class meetings, electing officers, debating problems in home room. Yes, the years of growing up . . . learning to solve our problems when adults, by meeting and facing them as students.

SENIORS

This was the year of reaching a goal, of planning a future, of dreaming dreams, of storing our memories, of saying goodbye . . . the year of closing a scrapbook on unforgettable years of achievement . . . of opening one for a future of anticipation.

Remember Our Adventure in Learning

The Fun of Going to School

The Thrill of Competitive Sports

The Enjoyment of Living Together

And, This, Our Year of Achievement

These future homemakers are learning the art of helping in cases of accidents in the home. Beverly Oler shows the class that home-nursing training is essential in every detail.

Talking on the phone is a mighty poor excuse for burned muffins. Here Pat Mackey demonstrates to her foods class that concentration and skill can turn out perfect results every time.

Stepping Forward to a Promising Position

Changing schedules, preparing for college, and planning a vocation is all done in guidance classes where careers are shaped for the future.

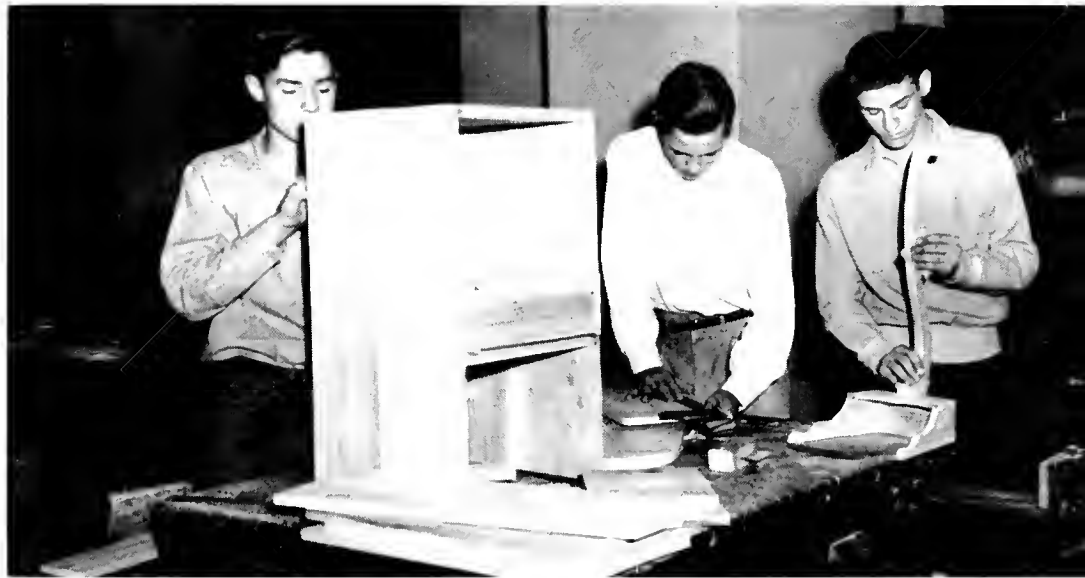

The hope of finding the answer to a theory has set the wheels turning and the gears clicking as complicated formulas remind these students of their solid geometry teachings. And math seems to be an all-out necessity to the boys in industrial arts.

With their eyes on the future these up-and-coming draftsmen look forward to interesting and well-paying occupations in the field of mechanical drawing.

From a single record can come fury, romance, rocket ships or glittering diamonds when English X students capture music's multitude of moods.

These underclassmen are not only studying the great names in the music world but also learning the fundamentals of singing.

Calculators . . . dictaphones . . . and mimeograph machines are just a part of the business training these girls will be able to put to use when they will have actual job experience.

If you have ever tried to play the piano with mittens on your hands, you know just how these beginning typing students felt during the first week of class.

The young chemists of this class hope that they have kept their formulas straight, as they proceed in their laboratory work.

Science Opens the Door

Riley's maternity ward, with its excess of doctors, nurses, and interns, takes over to usher into the world this brood of white rats.

The Spanish Club provides many colorful displays during the year, and one of the prettiest to be exhibited was this showing of the treasures of Latin America and Spain.

Life with the ancient Romans is relived again in this Latin class, as the students have a chance to get personal glimpses of the everyday surroundings of these Romans.

Hoping to curb the many traffic accidents, several of the students of this driving education class point out the dangers of disobeying the regulations of safe driving.

Those "Quiet Hours" From Three to Midnight

Mistletoe, the stand-by at Christmas and a good excuse any time, is being used to tease Neil, Sam, Tom, and Chuck by Joyce Anderson and Marilyn Bennett.

Pausing at Marilyn Guisinger's locker between classes, Kay Harmon finds that as good a time as any to catch up on the latest news.

"Stranger In Paradise", "Ebbtide", "Tenderly", or whatever the record seems to bring a dreamy look into the eyes of Janet Whitmer, Mary Timm, Marilyn Moffett, and Norma Zimmer.

All work and no play makes teacher a dull boy, but these teachers intend to get a bang out of their annual fall party.

...and What We Filled Them With to Make Them Eventful

A refrigerator stocked with cokes and food is tempting Wilma Potter and Ruthie Srivier. After playing Cowboys and Indians with the kids before bedtime, these babysitters feel cokes are well earned.

"Go, Team, Go," "Get That Ball" and yells to the tunes of "Gambella" and the "Bunny Hop" keep the spirit of Riley alive in the hearts of these fans and followers of the "Wildcat Five".

Slugger Chuck Hupka, Riley's undefeated champion (pie-eater) mangles another challenger as Jim Pare counts the knockdowns.

Even though we're from good old Indiana, a Louisiana hayride can never compare with the fun and laughter that we have on one of ours.

Say, that looks like Jackie Gleason this Riley couple is watching. Better look out though, kids, because while you are watching television, television could be watching you!

Look out below! Nancy Riggs is trying to start a pillow fight. Eating all the time, clowning around like this, or just plain talking are all a part of a 'sleepless' slumber party.

A dance wouldn't be complete without a party before it. That's what Sandy Lovisa thought when she gave this one before the Christmas formal.

A convertible, a nice day, and a group of friends is a typical way of spending a little time after a day at school. Cramped quarters is usually the only drawback to the amount of fun that can be had.

Dad's important call must wait as John Kacsits and Janet Fettel monopolize the phone discussing those ever-interesting sweet nothings.

Activities Reward Us With Pleasure...

Each day during second and third hours band director, Lewis Habegger, stepped onto the podium in room 103 and raised his right hand . . . the cue for talented student instrumentalists to "strike up the band". This continual rehearsal was evident in the perfection of the school's marching band . . . and of the two concerts of the music organization.

Senior band president for the past year was Richard Hawley. Other officers of the group were Peggy Titus, vice president; Ronald Raber, secretary-treasurer, and Librarians Marion Piser and Bonnie Fettel.

The marching band really obeys, when the order is given "Break ranks".

Riley was well proud, during the 1953-54 school year of one of the finest high school orchestral groups in the vicinity . . . its own. Under director Miss Laura Mae Briggs, the large group made many successful appearances before the student body and South Bend audiences.

Featured in the spring concert of the Riley orchestra were soloists Pat Klopfenstein and Richard Hawley, pictured at the left. The two seniors were honored for their contributions to the group . . . "ability, faithfulness, and loyalty".

Drooping eye-lids opened wide each morning at 7:30 as 115 glee club members found that it is fun to begin the day with a song.

Under director Miss Ruby L. Guilliams, the group performed often for student and adult audiences. They count among their activities, participation in the North Central Music Festival . . . 'The Nutcracker Suite' . . . 'Finian's Rainbow' . . . The Christmas and Easter presentations . . . and school assembly programs. In all they were well received.

Organized for the purpose of singing in places where a large vocal group cannot be accommodated were a boy's vocal quartet and a similar girls ensemble. These students sang for special school assemblies and for local church, charity, and club groups.

Equipped with flashlights, programs, and a friendly smile, Riley ushers were present at all school functions — for the purpose of "showing the way" to a seat in the auditorium or on the bleachers at a ball game. Heading the membership were officers Harry Smith, Charles Herman, and Dennis Floden. Mr. Robert Osborn is the group sponsor.

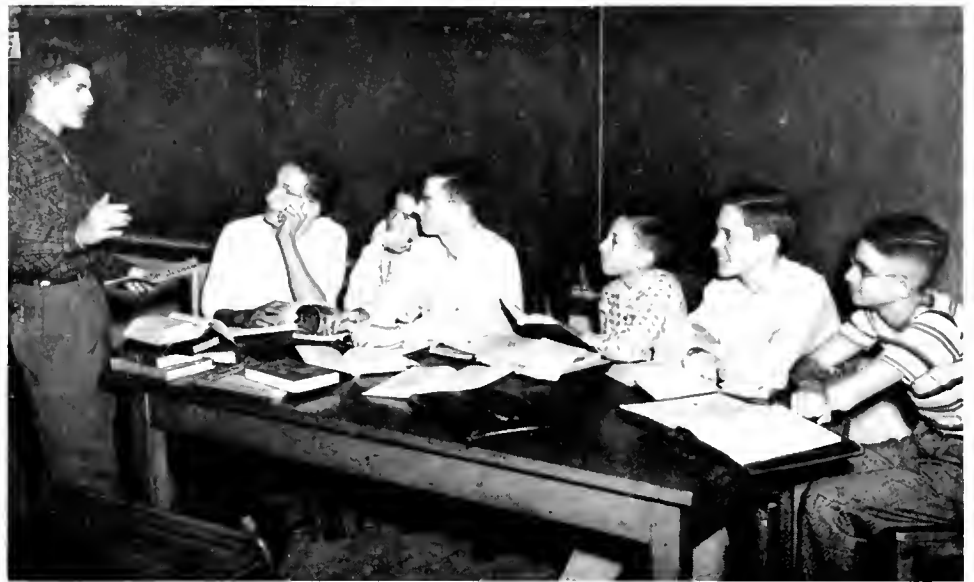

In their newly-remodeled audio visual room, Screen Club members were on hand at all times to help the faculty in the presentation of subject material through the use of movies, records, and tape recordings.

Watching over all proceedings with an experienced and understanding eye was advisor, Mr. Felix Wiatrowski.

Riley says "thank you" to the Hi-Y for escorting its "royalty" through-out the year . . . for the Swingheart Sway in February . . . the Easter Assembly in the spring. Faculty sponsor, Mr. Edward Jenkinson and club president John Wilson, along with officers John Kascits, Fred Odusch, Jim Thompson, and Jim Paczkowski guided the activities of the popular organization.

Under Coach Max Barack, Riley debaters learned to express ideas and opinions clearly and forcefully. Ted Noell and Tom Bintinger, who presented the negative case, and Jack Byers and Bert Anson, affirmative case team, competed in the Illinois University Annual Invitational Debate tournament — and brought fame to their home town. They "matched words" often with other St. Joseph County high school debaters.

The Riley student body "spoke" to the school faculty and administration through its Student Council. Under officers Jim Hock, Max Bauman, and Carol Whitmer and advisor, Mr. Claude M. Wolfram, the representative group initiated a noon dance program. . . . "Bill Denney" week . . . the Washington-Riley pep assembly. Their purpose . . . "to promote understanding and co-operation between teachers and pupils . . . to achieve the best possible institution of learning."

"True brotherhood can be more than a word" insisted some one hundred and seventy-five members of the Junior Round Table of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Throughout the year students — Protestants, Catholics, and Jews; Negro and White — worked side by side to fulfill their promise to themselves. The high school age group worked and had fun . . . and found much happiness in the realization that they, among many, were aiding in the promotion of one of the highest ideals of mankind. Billie Pollock of Riley, was co-chairman of the county-wide organization.

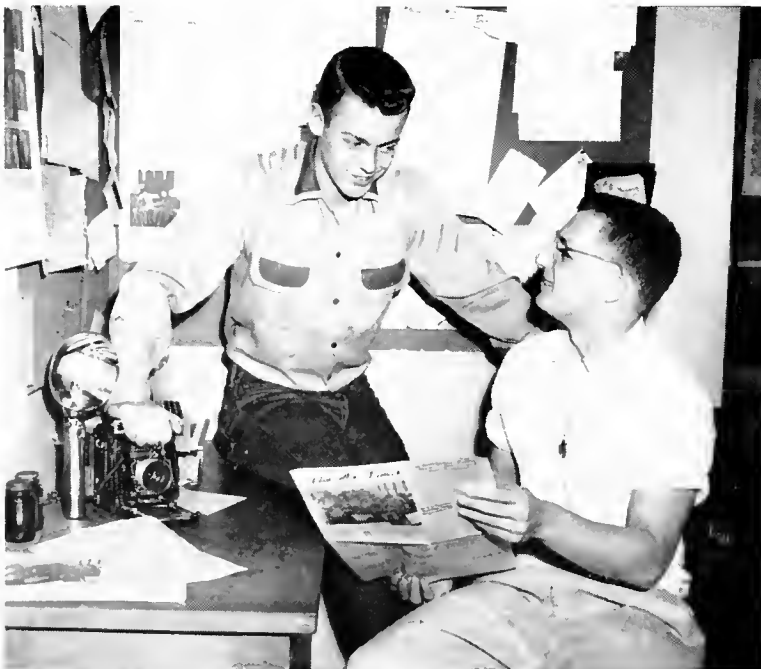

The Hi-Times

Into the wee hours of the morning the editors of the school weekly publication wrote. And when dissatisfied with their work they re-wrote . . . stories about Riley . . . and the people in Riley . . . their teachers . . . the classmates . . . their friends. With circles under half-closed eyes, and happy smiles on worn faces, the capable students presented each week another issue of the Riley Hi-times. Billie Pollock served as Editor-In-Chief; LaRae Reader was second page editor; Miss Bess Wyrick, Advisor.

Reporters, editors, typists, and business staff members work "for nuthin'" . . . but the printer wants his money. Portia Troyer and Pat Neitch furnished this necessary item through the weekly supply of ads. The two girls are pictured here with Hi-Times typists, under head-typist Karen Leopold, seated at the typewriter. Shown, also, at the right is business manager, Linda Ramey.

Sports editor, Ray Webster, smiles the smile that brought "sunshine" to the Hi-Times staff room. With him is staff photographer, Clark Bavin . . . an "old faithful".

Staff

They observed and listened . . . In everyday occurrences they learned to find exciting "news". At first tears were shed when articles were not printed. Later, the hearts of young reporters swelled with pride when first by-lines appeared.

"Wanna buy a paper?" . . . "Nope" . . . "Sorry, haven't got a dime" . . . "The cost of living is high these days" . . . "Is my name in it?" . . . "Yeah . . . guess I might as well" . . . Whew! . . . Somehow each week the Hi-Times was sold to many, many students and faculty members. Co-Managers Douglas Schwepler and Lestene West directed a large circulation staff.

A senior and freshman worked together . . . laughed together . . . worried together . . . had fun together. Pat Murray and Frances Morris edited the second page of the school newspaper.

Editor-In-Chief Caryle Steffee sighs with relief as advisor George Koch smiles away a task that once seemed impossible. Photographer Ed Friend has covered his last assignment. The Riley population has . . . to keep, for a lifetime, if they so desire . . . an organized collection of high school memories.

A typewriter . . . an editor . . . a bit of sentiment . . . a bit of fact . . . a twist of imagination . . . a camera and a photographer . . . an inspiration . . .

And here are the unsung heroes — the room captains — who sold the books and turned in their collections each week to the business staff. They were essential to the success of the book.

Poet Staff

The business staff composed of Cleo Kramer, Gloria Smith, and Jane Long had complete charge of circulation, collections and distribution of the book. They worked under manager Maureen Jackson.

Margaret Carder edited the Underclassman section. Conrad Strykul and Carl Yordanich were in charge of the Sports division of the book . . . Art Editor was Martha Boggs.

With the pleasant task ever before them of making available to the Riley students and faculty all of the "treasures to be found between the pages of books" . . . library staff members, under Miss Lois Josephson, were seldom idle. With a smile they satisfied requests for the works of Shakespeare . . . Shaw . . . Steinbeck . . . "The Atlantic Monthly" . . . or "Seventeen" . . .

The only existing student group of its kind in South Bend high schools, the Riley assembly committee took pride in beautifully "dressing" the stage for school assembly programs, greeting guest speakers and performers . . . ushering. Chairmen Ronald Dunlap and David Puterbaugh and faculty sponsor, Miss Edith L. Steele, guided grade representatives in their numerous responsibilities.

The major project of the Spanish Club this year was the presentation of the "Curse of the Inca" . . . a one-act play, starring Miss Shirley Kramer.

Riley Latin Club members, under advisor, Miss Elizabeth Noble, believe in authenticity. At club meetings . . . parties . . . potlucks . . . initiation . . . they tried always to give those present a keener understanding of the ancient Greek Civilization by copying, to some extent the dress of the people . . . preparing and eating food in the manner of the people whose culture they study.

"LE CERCLE FRANCIAS" determined to prove that "learning can be fun." They accomplished their purpose under the leadership of Miss Bertha Kiel, advisor, president Sally Gerber, Vice president, Kenneth Watson, Secretary Dorothy Greenleaf and treasurer, Barbara Selby. Here they are enjoying a dinner at Sally Gerber's. Featured of course, was onion soup.

"Amo, amas, ama" . . . I love, you love, he loves. All Spanish club members loved the gay fiestas . . . the holiday parties . . . the weekly meetings . . . the club assemblies . . . the trips to Chicago . . . that composed the yearly activities of the foreign language organization. For the past two years, Sharon Rogalski has served as "el presidente". Others on the executive board, guided by faculty sponsor, Mrs. Helen Brokaw, were Martha Boggs, Kay Mittler, Earlene Sieron, and Carolyn Sarka.

Parties, dances and community service projects were among the activities sponsored this year by the Riley chapter of the world wide Y-Teens organization. Nancy Olmstead, Barbara Selby, Sandra Straub, Frances Morris, Myrna McBryde, Yvonne Robinson, Lynda Frederick, Mahala De Jarnatt, Ruth Brothers, Phyllis Holmes . . . among the student leaders. Miss Violet Roher . . . faculty sponsor.

The Riley gymnasium "crackled and popped" with activity each Tuesday evening as G.A.A. members, coached by Miss Mary Catherine Lauer, played basketball, volleyball, ping pong, badminton and other games of their choosing. On Wednesday morning they reverted again to type and relied upon the "big strong, Riley males" to carry those "awful, heavy books."

One of the school's most successful ventures was the selling of TB Christmas Seals. Here is Shirley Acheson selling stamps in room 301.

Every year the Drama Club gives to the people of our community several outstanding stage performances. During this year their fall show was the comedy, "The Fighting Littles". At Christmas time they gave "The Nutcracker Suite", at three packed performances. The selection of their spring offering has not yet been made known.

Paint smeared faces . . . the joy in creating something lovely, whether it be a set or a characterization . . . an opening curtain . . . a blinding spotlight . . . the fright . . . the anticipation . . . the pride. These are the memories of the "Sunday Costs Five Pesos" cast, a drama class one-act play.

The Drama Club Presents . . .

Riley drama board members, under director James Casaday, were always present to help the school's active drama club over the "bumps" in the final path to success. Marcia Heintzelman and Ronald Dunlap each served one semester as the president of the directing board. Other members of the group . . . Billie Pollock,

Dennis Orosz, Roberta Terry, West Barnes, Bob Ridout, Norma Slauson, Lucinda Grant, Marc Manges, Peggy Titus, and Sandra Mikel aided in the selection of shows for presentation . . . took part in the productions . . . headed the production committees . . . served as Mr. Casaday's "right hand men".

The Fighting Littles

Rileyites "fought to the end" while audiences "whooped and howled" and literally rolled in the aisles during the fall production of the drama club play . . . "The Fighting Littles".

The Nutcracker Suite

The Riley stage was transformed into a veritable wonderland of charm and fantasy as Drama and Glee Clubs combined presented their Christmas production . . . "The Nutcracker and The Mouse King."

Exclamations of delight burst from a delighted audience as the curtain opened on a stage setting that realistically "smacked" of winter and snow . . . good will . . . the Christmas spirit . . .

A little girl dreamed a dream on the Riley stage one evening last winter and the stage came to "life" with fighting mice . . . waltzing flowers . . . fairies and Arabian dancers . . .

Football...

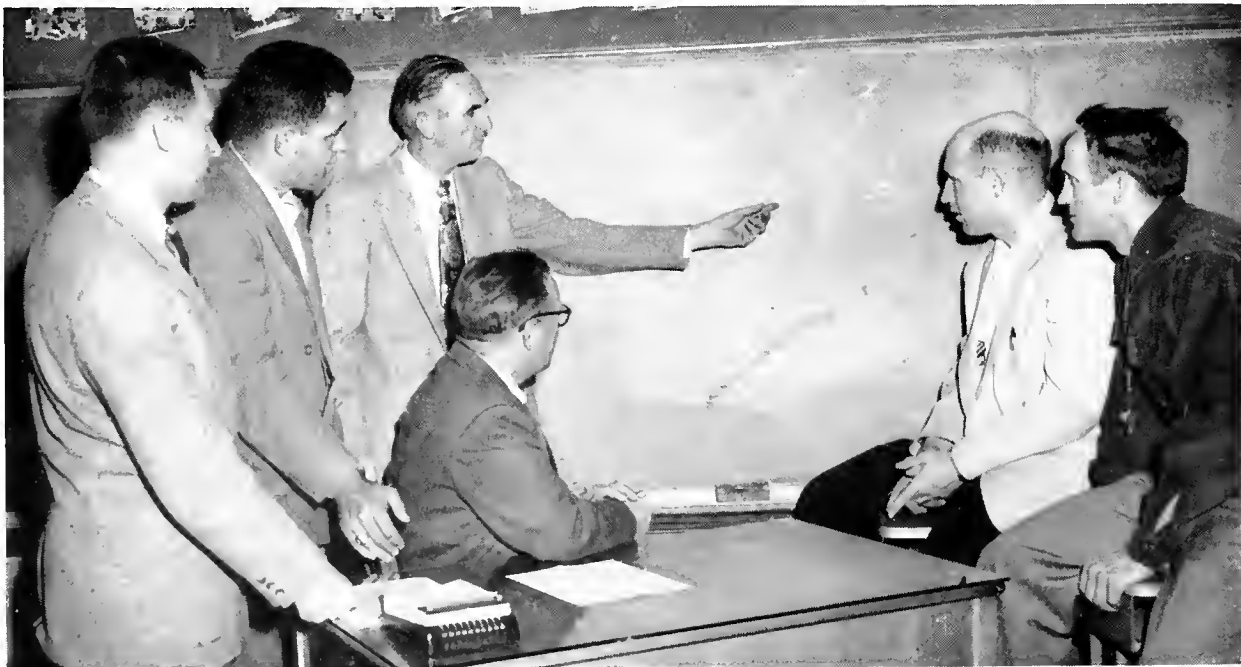

CATS MAUL FROEBEL IN SEASON OPENER

Cooch "Spike" Kelly and his Wildcat eleven opened the 1953 football campaign with a 36-0 victory over a weak Froebel team. Fullback Jim Pare scored the opening touchdown of the game and first of the season as he ploughed 2 yards for the tally. Odusch added the conversion. Seconds later Riley recovered a fumble in the Devil end zone for a safety and a nifty interception of a Devil aerial set up Dick Vincek's 1 yard drive for the second touchdown. Just before the intermission John Nevelle threw a T. D. aerial to Jack Kudlaty all alone by the goal. Then Kudlaty's interception gave Hubert Griffith a T.D. when he plunged five yards for the final tally. Odusch converted to run the score to 36-0.

Coach "Spike" Kelly looks discouraged as line Coach Fethers points out the flaws in the Wildcat line. Coach Morrison gives the action his attention.

FORT WAYNE UPSETS CATS IN CONFERENCE TILT

Although favored in its second battle and first conference tilt the mighty Cats fell to a determined Fort Wayne eleven 13-6. Arnie Layman stunned the crowd by taking the opening kickoff back a long 61 yards before being nailed on the Archers 29. A tough North Side defense held the Cats and immediately after they received the ball Quarterback Larry Koehl uncorked a 60-yard pass to end Don Ellison setting up Jack McGarry's touchdown run and conversion to put the Archers ahead 7-0. Riley then went to work with Kudlaty and Nevelle hitting receivers again and again until Kudlaty finally tagged Fred Odusch for a T.D. The Northsiders fought right back and ended Riley's winning streak scoring with just seconds to play.

LAPORTE FALLS TO KELLYMEN

Riley showed great possibilities as the Cats got back on the winning trail in conference ranks putting on a great brand of ball by trouncing the Laporte Slicers 19-0. A Slicer fumble gave Dick Vincek the opportunity to tally the Cats first touchdown. Another long drive ended when fullback Jim Pare rammed over from the two-yard stripe sending Riley ahead 12-0. Arnie Layman started another drive moving the ball 42 yards in three tries. A Kudlaty to Odusch pass gave another 18 and the stalky Pare scored the third T.D. Odusch converted. A sensational 71-yard run by Laporte's Bucky Haag in the final seconds was stopped on the 21 giving the Wildcats their second shutout in three attempts.

CATS TRIP MICHIGAN CITY

Michigan City was tough and produced a stubborn team but the Wildcats managed a thrilling 19-14 victory for their second win in conference play. The main factor in Riley's victory was a great comeback after City's Pat Gardner picked a screen pass out of the air and ran 46 yards to put the Red Devils out front. Layman quickly dashed 37 yards to put the Cats back in the game as Odusch's toe gave Riley a 7-6 lead. Layman then tossed an aerial to Whitaker who scored Riley's second T.D. City still wasn't finished and Bob Johnson ran 35 yards to a touchdown after gathering up a Wildcat fumble. Jack Kudlaty connected with Odusch for the final score managing a Cat victory.

KOVATCH NIGHT A CELEBRATED VICTORY

For the twelfth straight year the Cats have never tasted defeat from an Adams Eagle eleven and in celebrating Ernie Kovatch night Riley trounced the Eagles 13-0. A strong Cat defense and end Fred Odusch gave the Cats no worries in shutting out Adams making them victims number four. Dick Whitaker and Don Coar outstanding on defense paved way as Vincek piled up yardage for the Cats. Jack Kudlaty threw a specialty to Odusch for the first touchdown while Fred was making a brilliant catch with Adams defenders on his back. Later Pat returned a punt to the Adams 45 but the drive was halted. Tom Goldberry's aerial was absorbed in Odusch's hands as he raced 14 yards to the final Wildcat tally.

CAVEMEN CRUSH WILDCATS

Opening their fourth loop battle and hoping for an upset the fighting Cats took it on the nose from a polished Maroon eleven 49-14. Jack Kudlaty gave the Cats an early lead when he threw a pass to Dick Vincek for the first touchdown. Mishawaka came back with two quick touchdowns with Bob Swartz scoring and then sending an aerial to Kacsis. Dave Hintz then ran 30 yards to another Mishawaka tally. In the second half the Maroons were at it again scoring another three touchdowns while Riley managed one on a 53-yard connection from John Nevelle to end Odusch. Odusch converted ending the game.

PANTHERS NIP CATS

Highly hopeful Wildcats ran into a couple of fellows by the name of Jim Easton and Mike Mondovics and a powerful Washington crew, only to be defeated in a thrilling ball game 20-12. Joe Brazier took an Easton pass on the 33 and took off to a Panther touchdown in the first period. A Brazier fumble set up a Cat score in the second stanza when a pass from Kudlaty to Dick Vincek set the ball on the B where Joe Meszaras scooted into the end zone for the score. Mondavics blocked the first of two extra points that eventually brought the Kellymen to defeat. Washington's second tally came when Steve Rzepnicki scored on a Easton aerial. A long pass from John Nevelle to Kudlaty gave the Cats their final score as Kudlaty galloped the remaining 47 yards. Easton intercepted a Cat pass to notch the game for Washington and ran to a touchdown. The Panthers went on to win the conference championship, the East-West conference battle from East Chicgo Washington, and the mythical State Championship.

CENTRAL DEFEATS CATS

Riley Wildcats closed their 1953 conference race with a 21-6 licking from the Central Bears. With just minutes gone in the first stanza Riley's John Karkiewicz recovered a Bear fumble on the Central 40. Dick Vincek scooted through centered for 35 yards to give the Cats their first and last score of the ball game. From then on it was Jim Dulcet as he racked up two tallies to put Central ahead 14-6. In the fourth period quarterback John Nevelle hit Dick Whitaker and Jim Pare on short connections but the Cats were unable to score. Jim Dulcet scored the final T.D. for Central on a 21-yard jaunt.

BLAZERS RAP KELLYMEN

The night was cold but our pigskin players were colder as they traveled to Elkhart to be beaten by a powerful Blazer crew 35-7. Elkhart's ground attack was too much for Riley as Kelly and Russo ran for two quick touchdowns early in the game. Riley's only tally came late in the second period when quarterback John Nevelle threw a short pass to Dick Whitaker for the score. Odusch added the extra point. In the second half Elkhart was at it again running and passing for three more tallies to send the Cats into their fifth loss of the season.

WILDCATS CRUSH RAMBLERS

"Spike" Kelly's Riley Wildcats closed out the 1953 football season in great form as they defeated the highly rated Mooseheart Ramblers 19-0. Quarterback John Nevelle hit Dick Vincek and Fred Odusch early in the game with beautiful aerals but both times the ball was dropped. Another T.D. was called back because of a penalty before the Kellymen could get started. A 70-yard march was climaxed with Vincek running 8 yards to a quick second half tally. On the next drive Vincek scooted the final 13 to give the Cats a comfortable 12-0 margin. Odusch added the extra point. On another long drive fullback Jim Pare smashed 1 yard to the final touchdown for the Cats. Riley ended the campaign with 5 wins and 5 losses.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

At the football banquet in the school cafeteria on November 24, Dick Vincek received the most Valuable Player award and Jim Thompson the Kiwanis Award for sportsmanship and scholarship. The 1954 co-captains Dick Vincek and Max Bauman were introduced by Coach Kelly.

Basketball . . .

"Here's the ball, now let's go!", said Head Coach Charles Stewart at the start of the basketball season. Looking on are assistant coaches, Rzeszewski, Barnbraak, and Caaper.

THE 1953-54 BASKETBALL STORY

While this 1953-54 season might not be judged a successful one from the wins and losses, it will be called a fairly successful one by many who knew of Coach Stewart's problems at the beginning. With only three returning lettermen and a host of untried and willing boys to fit into the lineup, Coach Stewart fielded a team that in many games reached a high point of perfection. As the season progressed, it could be seen that the material on the present squad, which will return next year, and the training and experience that they were receiving will most likely make the Riley five a formidable unit in 1955. A resume of the 1953-54 season follows:

Coach "Charlie" Stewart's hardwood quintet opened the 1953-54 basketball season with an impressive 72-53 win over Glenn High School. Coach Stewart sent eleven players into the game but Fred Odusch's 25 points provided the margin for the Wildcats.

Varsity Basketball Team

Row 1—Feick, Maurek, Lovisa, Manager Ramey, Austin, Young, Yordanich.

Row 2—Strykul, Odusch, Kudlaty, Anderson, Medich, McElhiene.

Traveling south for their next two games, the Cats came home with a 1-2 record. They met the highly rated Crispus Attucks and were defeated 58-48. Jack Kudlaty led the Cat attack with 18 points. Unable to hit from the floor, the Stewartmen were whipped by Terre Haute Wiley the following evening 56-34. Jack Kudlaty had 8 points in the Wildcats losing efforts.

In Inter-city competition, Riley traveled to nearby Mishawaka to open conference play. After a 19-19 halftime, the Cats got behind the Cavemen 32-25 and could never catch up, losing 60-37. Burnie Maurek and Orvester Austin tallied 8 and 7 points respectively for the Cats.

Opening the city series with South Bend Washington, the Wildcats still couldn't get hot and dropped their fourth straight ball game and second straight conference tilt 45-32. Still lacking in basketball know-how, the Cats scored only 2 points in the third period when Roman Lovisa hit a long one hander with three seconds left to play. Jack Kudlaty chipped in 12 points for the losers.

Brazil was the next opponent for the Cats and again the Riley cagers were defeated 54-44. Fred Odusch was high for Riley, with 12 points.

Still with lack of experience and much greenness, Coach Stewart found a new starting five for the Washington-Clay game. Trailing 29-28 at the intermission, the Cats came back in the second half and won easily over the Colonials 65-57. George Medich netted 8 points in the fourth quarter to give the Cats their margin, but Austin held scoring honors with 14. This was victory number two for the Riley quintet.

In the Riley Invitational Tourney, held at John Adams, the Wildcats were matched against Hammond, the tourney favorites, and upset the big boys from Calumet 68-64 in an afternoon contest. Austin cinched the game with two free throws 30 seconds before the final gun. The game was previously tied four times and each team traded basket for basket until the Cats pulled ahead 61-52 for the longest lead of the game. Hammond came back strong and then Austin added his fatal free throws. Odusch led the Cat scoring with 22 points and Kudlaty hit for 16. This upset matched the Wildcats with Gary Froebel in the championship game. Riley held only brief leads and Gary pulled away to notch a 50-39 win. Kudlaty was high man with 13 points.

Starting into the regular schedule again, the Wildcats were upset by the Plymouth Pilgrims 45-40, and mauled by Fort Wayne Northside in a NIHSC game, 71-53. Fred Odusch and Orvester Austin shared scoring honors in the Plymouth game with 11 points. Against Northside, the Wildcats stayed close in the first quarter, suddenly collapsed, and never caught fire again. Dropping their third conference game and eighth in season play, Austin snared game scoring laurels with 16 points, netting 10 in the third period.

The Cats climbed out of the NIHSC cellar by tripping the Laporte Slicers 52-41 for their first loop win of the season. Riley was paced by Fred Odusch's 17 points. Starting the tougher opponents, Riley played host to South Bend Central in a conference city tilt. Trying to overcome the basketball jinx the Wildcats stayed close until the final period and Central took advantage to pull away at the gun 68-54. Odusch's 22 points couldn't match Central's well balanced scoring attack.

Bad luck hit again as the Stewartmen were beaten by Auburn 55-49. Riley led throughout the game but Auburn rallied in the final period of this see-saw battle to turn back the visiting Cats. Riley was led again by the 15 point performance of Fred Odusch.

John Adams defeated the Wildcats 52-47 in a city contest. The loss put the Cats in the city cellar. This was Rileys' eleventh loss and fourth in conference play.

FRED ODUSCH SETS TO RING THE HOOP FOR A 2-Pointer in the Washington-Clay game.

Losses to East Chicago Washington 64-52 and Elkhart in a NIHSC game 78-53 seemed to give the Stewart crew what they needed as the Wildcats whipped Hammond Clark 51-48 and Goshen 60-53 in their next two outings. Jack Kudlaty led the southsiders in the Clark game with 14 points. Against Goshen, the Cats won their second conference game and sixth game of the season. This was the longest game of the season. Taking an early lead on McElhenie layup, the Cats stayed ahead throughout the contest. Odusch netted 20 points and McElhenie 10, as a result of 68 fouls called, which tied the foul-making record.

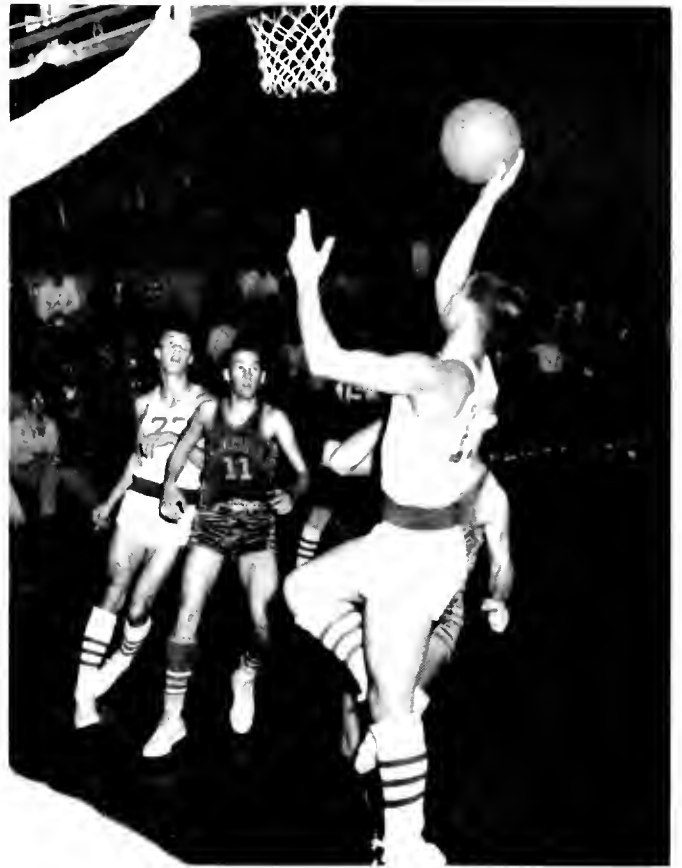

Riley traveled to Michigan City to close out the 1953-54 basketball campaign and was beaten in a conference game 65-48. After owning a 13-12 first period lead, the Wildcats lost all hopes for an upset. Ronnie McElhenie and Fred Odusch shared scoring honors with 13 points apiece. Riley had a season record of 6 wins and 14 losses and in conference play, Riley won 2 and lost 9.

In the Sectional, Riley was pitted against the State Champion, Central Bears. The game was a thriller from start to finish. Riley led 13-12 at the end of the first quarter and only one point separated the teams at the three-quarter mark. Central finally overcame the Wildcats in the fourth quarter, the Bears winning 51-46.

Guard Roman Lavisa steals ball from Colonial player and drives in and under for an easy two points. Kudlaty sets himself for rebound.

Salute to a Noble Lady

After 46 years of devoted service as a teacher, 23 of them at Riley, Miss Van Scoy retired from our faculty on February 5 of this year. She died on May 3 after an illness of several months.

Few have had the opportunity to give so many years to the training of the youth of our country. Miss Van Scoy looked upon this as a privilege.

She loved boys and girls, and delighted in watching them grow in mind and in body. Many, indeed, are living richer and fuller lives today, because they came under the influence of this noble lady.

Our Year of Achievement

Who can forget the day we entered Riley as eighth graders? Our first class meeting was quite eventful, for here we met Riley's new principal, Mr. Dake, as well as other faculty members whom we'll always remember as real friends, though they may have scared us at first with all their dignity and knowledge. We were sorry to be parted from some of our old friends, but we soon found ourselves making new friends fast.

By the time we were Freshmen we felt quite at home, and many of us became active in school activities such as dramatics, music, sports, and Hi-Times. Still we felt so inferior when we looked at the "high and mighty" seniors. We thought that 1954 would just never come! Remember the days as Sophomores? We felt that we were finally getting up in the world. We were even used to the inevitable final exams by now, and most of us were beginning to realize that the theory, "Don't let your education interfere with your extra-curricular activities", wasn't as wise as we had imagined.

One thing we'll always remember about high school is the homework. How tedious and gruesome it seemed; but it was all worthwhile, for next we were promoted to Juniors! Remember the days of our class parties — the eighth grade picnic, the "Freshman Frolic", "Cupid's Capers", and our Junior Prom, "Blue Moon". These were the days of hayrides, sock hops, formals, movie and T.V. dates, coke parties, club meetings, and the girls traditional pajama parties.

When the day finally arrived that made us Seniors, we could hardly believe it. We all looked the same, and we didn't feel a bit different! Yet these were our days of glory! Remember the strange feeling of seeing our fellow classmates on the varsity football and basketball teams, on the queens' courts, as Senior class officers? Yes, we had finally reached that glorious time, and now, strange as it seems, we are looking backward on our high school days instead of forward. Although we still have so much to look forward to in the future, we'll hate to leave you, Riley, and we'll always "remember the days"!

1954 SENIOR CLASS

It is with a great deal of pride that the Hoosier Poet presents these students who have maintained an average of ninety per cent or better since entering the ninth grade.

This achievement was not an easy one. During these years, they put the getting of an education above everything else.

This reward is one of honor and distinction.

Our Classroom for Riley Students Has Been Repeated on Personal Loan Office Operating Procedures.

SECURITY LOAN COMPANY

"The Friendly Small Loan Office"

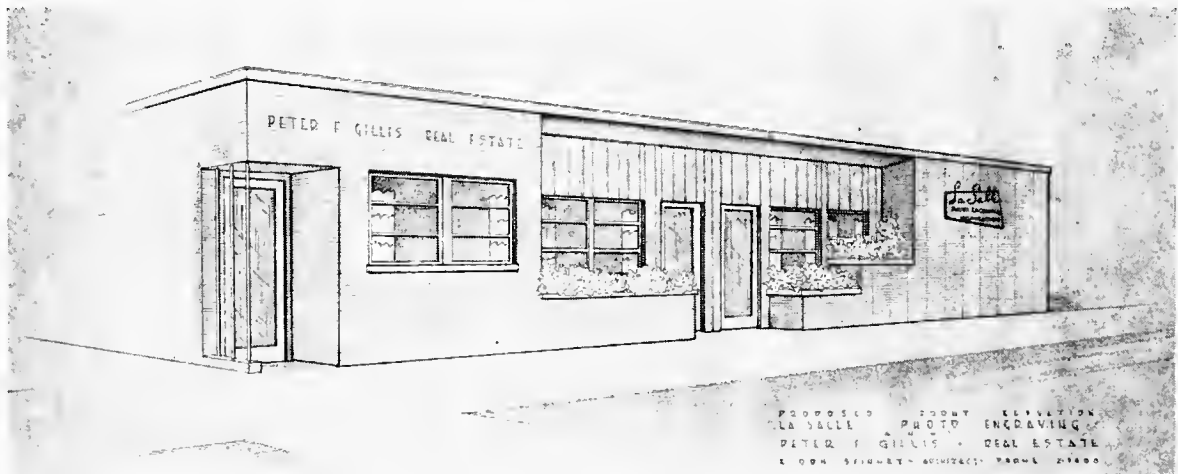

212 SHERLAND BLDG. E. B. MURPHY, Mgr.

The Security Loan Company . . . 212 Sherland Building, South Bend, Indiana, has again set aside one day for the sole purpose of conducting a class for the students of Riley High School in business courses, to familiarize them with the principal operating factors used in the small loan industry.

The small loan industry is a division of the growing consumer credit field. It renders a specialized money service to those in need of assistance on financial problems.

The service is recognized by the various social welfare agencies and business leaders as a definite necessity in every community.

The classroom presents educational facts at the high school level. Many Riley students already have found the consumer credit field an excellent one for employment and a life career.
